

Morale Boost In Trip

Nikita Plans German Visit This Weekend

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev will make a morale boosting trip to East Germany this weekend just a few days after President Kennedy winds up his swing around West Germany and West Berlin.

There were reports in Western circles that the premier had already left for Bucharest, Romania, en route. Romanian Communists have been showing signs of independence from the Kremlin and such a trip would have been a trouble-shooting expedition.

However, the Foreign Ministry's press department denied it has said it "understands" Khrushchev had left for the Romanian capital.

The premier is scheduled to arrive in East Germany Sunday in an obvious attempt to counter some of the effect of Kennedy's West German tour and visit to the Berlin wall.

The announcement early today of Khrushchev's trip called it a friendly visit in connection with the 70th birthday Sunday of Walter Ulbricht, East Germany's Communist leader.

Western quarters in Moscow viewed Khrushchev's plans as an effort to counterweight Kennedy's visit and boost East German morale, always the low point in the Soviet bloc. A West German government spokesman in Bonn agreed.

"The demonstration of friendship of the German and American people during the visit of President Kennedy apparently made it necessary to freshen up Ulbricht's damaged prestige on somewhat short notice," said Karl Guenther von Hase, West German press chief.

The announcement of Khrushchev's trip caught Communist circles in Moscow by surprise. Some called Western news agencies to find out if Kennedy and Khrushchev might be in Berlin at the same time.

Local Man Wounded In Knob Noster

Twenty-two stitches were required to close three lacerations sustained Monday night by Jack W. Krause, who is employed with Palmer Tool Co., Sedalia. The wounds were sustained in an altercation which occurred on Knob Noster's Main Street at 10 p.m. Monday.

Krause was treated at Bothwell Hospital by Dr. A. J. Campbell and released.

Spencer Manning, Knob Noster, was arrested Monday night by Charles Norman and Keith Berry of the Knob Noster Police Department. Manning has been charged with felonious assault with intent to do bodily harm. It was alleged by Krause that he was attacked with a half-inch ratchet drive handle from a socket set. The wrench was later found in an alley on Main Street in Knob Noster.

Manning was arranged in Johnson County Magistrate Court Tuesday morning before Magistrate Betty Pine Lockard. His bond was set at $2,000 and the preliminary hearing for 9:30 a.m. Thursday, according to Johnson County Sheriff William O. Fortney. Manning is in Johnson County jail in lieu of bond.

Population Shrank As Fast as It Grew

PRAIRIE VILLAGE, Kan. (AP) — The population really exploded in this eastern Kansas community this summer.

City Clerk Jane Scott discovered it after the community swimming pool opened. The pool operates with a sliding scale of charges from individual single admissions to a "swim all you want" arrangement for families.

This summer, Mrs. Scott said, she discovered that one couple which had no children last year, now claims five. Another registered with six although census records show it has none.

A few telephone inquiries, the clerk said, resulted in 19 swimming passes being surrendered by persons with guilty consciences.

City Police Plagued By Minor Thefts

In Addition To Major Robbery At Canteen Service

Besides a major burglary at the Canteen Service, 2435 West Main, overnight Monday, police were plagued with a number of other minor thefts.

Sgt. John McDonald discovered at 1:27 a.m. Tuesday, Nig Bennett's Texaco Service Station, 2600 West Broadway, had been broken into. The burglars first attempted to pry open a front door, then went to a west window and broke the glass.

Inside the station, a cigarette machine was pried open and $30 in cash taken. Three soda pop vending machines were also pried open and an undetermined amount of money taken, police said.

At 1:29 a.m. Tuesday a soap vending machine at the Thrifty Laundromat, Seventh and Emmett, was found pried open.

A stolen watermelon from the Sedalia Ice & Cold Storage Company, 320 West Main, resulted in a charge being filed against a 17-year-old Sedalia youth and a juvenile at 1:30 a.m. Tuesday. The youths were arrested in the 100 block of South Kentucky, police reported.

Perry Neil Burch, 17, 732 East Fourth, was charged with petit larceny in connection with the missing watermelon and is scheduled to appear in Police Court Wednesday. Name of the juvenile was not released.

A pair of vise grip pliers was believed to have been the tool used in an attempt to open a soda pop vending machine at the Coin-O-Matic Laundry, 2809 East 12th. The unsuccessful attempt was discovered by police at 1:45 a.m. Tuesday.

A telephone was pried loose and stolen from a pay booth at the Sedalia Implement Company, 2205

Scrap Traditions

Sail up Missouri With Cattle Herd

OMAHA Neb. (AP) — A Texas cattleman scrambled a pair of rugged American traditions and sailed up the Missouri River to market today with a herd of 1,000 steers.

Rivermen said it has been half a century or more since cattle have come up the Missouri by boat. And never, until rancher Gerald Harrison put a riverboat captain in charge of a cattle drive, had there been anything like the Lulu Belle and its cargo. The Belle was once a three-deck automobile barge. Harrison converted it into a floating feedlot.

On June 15, at Greenville, Miss., ranch hands herded his baling Brahmas crossbreeds aboard and the barge began its 1,400-mile trip up the Mississippi and Missouri rivers.

Unloaded here, the cattle will be trucked to a feedlot for fattening. Then they'll be carted off to pens of South Omaha's sprawling market.

One of the elemental spectacles of the American West a century ago was a cattle drive up from Texas to the railroads and deep grasses of the Great Plains. When the railroads penetrated farther west, the drives ended.

The Missouri has been a traditional route of immigration and commerce since Lewis and

Plea Of Innocent By Hoffa

Charged With Tapping Rich Pension Fund

CHICAGO (AP) — James R. Hoffa pleaded innocent today to charges of tapping pension funds and heard an attorney state that federal agents had asked a codefendant to give perjured testimony against Hoffa.

Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, and seven associates were indicted by a federal grand jury in Chicago June 4 on charges of tapping a rich union pension fund for $20 million in loans fraudulently obtained. They also were accused of diverting more than a million dollars from the loans for their personal benefit.

Jacque Schiffer, counsel for defendant Benjamin Dranow, told Judge Richard B. Austin that Department of Justice agents recently visited Dranow in Sandstone, Minn., federal prison and asked him to give perjured testimony against Hoffa. In return, he said, they promised Dranow a presidential pardon.

"There was no effort on the part of the government to secure perjured testimony," said U.S. Atty. James P. O'Brien "no physical violence was used on Dranow."

VFW Liquor License Is Suspended

The bar liquor license of Pettis County VFW Post 2591, at 121 South Ohio, has been suspended for 30 days by Hollis Ketchum, state supervisor of liquor control in Jefferson City.

Ketchum's office reported the suspension was for sale after hours, gambling, permitting consumption of liquor after hours and failure to stamp license name and number on labels. The 30-day suspension will be effective July 8.

The suspension of the local club's liquor license was one of 29 around the state announced Monday by Ketchum.

Charges against the VFW club grew out of an investigation by liquor control agents at the club on April 21. Two agents, who had been at the hall for sometime, made themselves known and confiscated some bottles of liquor and cards.

VFW officials said they were not certain the two agents were actually from the liquor control office.

A hearing was held in Jefferson City June 19 and Ketchum took the matter under advisement at that time.

To Close Streets

The Howard Construction Co. today announced the closing of Main, from State Fair to Park, and Third, from State Fair to Warren, Thursday. The closing of these two streets will be for an indefinite period, due to Urban Plan construction.

Conferees Working On Aid Figure

Appropriation Bills Sidetracked In the Senate

JEFFERSON CITY, (AP) — House and Senate conferees went back to work today, trying to come up with an acceptable figure for aid to dependent children.

The Senate's work on the main appropriation bills was sidetracked Monday night when the Senate refused to accept the compromise version of a welfare bill cutting the ADC allotment.

Everything went along smoothly at first as the Senate started passing the bills carrying $1,431,785,000 to run the state government for the next two years. That is about $9.4 million less than the governor recommended and $12.7 million less than the House voted.

Then the welfare bill came up and after a long wrangle the Senate voted, 14-16, not to accept the conference version.

Last week the Senate cut the House ADC figure by $2 million to $14,586,000. Since the money is matched on a 50-50 basis by the federal government, that actually represented a $4 million over-all slash.

But the conferees restored $163,972 of the cut, making the total $14,750,000.

Sen. J. F. Patterson, D-Caruthersville, said he just wanted to raise a little flag in protest to illegitimacy in the ADC program. He said in some cases illegitimacy now extends into the second and third generations on the ADC rolls.

But Sen. T. D. McNeal, D-St. Louis, the Senate's only Negro, and others objected. McNeal called it barbaric "to starve children born out of wedlock." Said it was not morally right to experiment with the welfare of innocent babies.

One Man Arrested

Cooperation Solves Crime At Local Canteen Service

Working in conjunction with two Springfield, Mo., law officers, Sedalia police and the Pettis County Sheriff's Department were able to solve an overnight burglary at the Canteen Service, 2435 West Main, and arrest one man who was found in possession of a large amount of small change and currency.

Arrested was Robert Lewis Franck, 28, Springfield, who had been sought by Springfield authorities after he escaped while under arrest on a burglary warrant there about a month ago.

The Canteen Service burglary was discovered by Sedalia Police Officers William Burnham and Virgil Frazier at 3:55 a.m. Tuesday morning when they found an open safe on a push cart on First Street at the rear of the establishment.

On investigation, police and the sheriff's department found entry had been gained by breaking in a restroom window on the east side of the building. Once inside, the burglars tore open a store room door, took two cartons of cigarettes and used a push cart inside the establishment to wheel the safe outside.

Chief of Police Ralph Hamlin said the safe showed no pry marks and had apparently been left unlocked.

Taken from the firm was a total of $1,566.70 in currency and small change, authorities said. The loot included $180 in currency, $5.50 in half dollars, $435 in quarters, $100.50 in dimes, $177.20 in nickels and $650 in uncounted change.

The investigation which led to Franck's arrest began early Tuesday morning when Frank B. Buell, a Greene County deputy sheriff, and Floyd Robards, a detective with the Springfield Police Department, arrived in Sedalia.

Buell and Robards were en route to Jefferson City with two other young men who were being taken to the state penitentiary to start serving sentences.

The Springfield law officers stopped by Pettis County Sheriff Emmett Fairfax's office to leave a warrant for Franck's arrest on the fugitive charge.

In Week of Aug. 24

Demos Name Atlantic City As Site of '64 Convention

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democrats will hold their 1964 presidential nominating convention in Atlantic City, N.J., the week of Aug. 24.

That decision announced by the party's national committee today puts the session the width of the continent away from, and six weeks after, the Republican National Convention which opens in San Francisco July 13.

The full Democratic National Committee unanimously accepted a recommendation from its site committee to return the convention to the East Coast for the first time since 1948. That year Harry S. Truman was nominated at Philadelphia.

The final vote in the site committee came at a breakfast session but formal action by the full committee did not come until about three hours later.

Earlier Chicago representatives had virtually conceded that their city had been eliminated from consideration because its new Convention Hall would not be available the week the Democrats wanted it.

Apparently both Chicago and Miami Beach, Fla., remained in the running until the final vote this morning.

In making the selection, the Site Committee had these factors to weigh:

Miami-Miami Beach put in the high bid of $700,000—and reportedly will go higher—for the pleasure and rewards of being the host city. However, some committee members were understood to be fearful that Miami's vast number of Cuban exiles might produce an embarrassing demonstration, although Florida spokesmen have given assurances there is no reason to fret on that score.

Atlantic City has bid $625,000 cash.

Chicago has offered $450,000 plus $150,000 to ready the convention hall. However, Jack Riley, an aide to Mayor Richard J. Daley, indicated the city felt the competition was getting stiff.

Said Riley: "Mayor Daley has said repeatedly that Chicago will beat any reasonable bid; when you get that high the bids just aren't reasonable."

Another problem is that Chicago's big, new McCormack Place convention hall will not be available when the Democrats want it—the third and fourth weeks in August. But Democratic National Chairman John M. Bailey has made clear that this does not put the city out of the running, because the International Amphitheatre—the site of many a political convention—is available.

A Rough Life...

It's a rough life, according to Robert Dawson, 8½, 1820 South Prospect.

About two weeks ago Dawson fell and broke his right arm at home. He was taken to Bothwell Hospital where Dr. A. R. Maddox placed the arm in a cast.

Monday afternoon the youth fell again and broke his left arm. Again he was taken to Bothwell Hospital and another cast was put in place.

Now both arms are in casts.

An Obvious Challenge To de Gaulle

Takes Unity Theme From Honor Guard Of NATO Troopers

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — In an obvious challenge to French President Charles de Gaulle, President Kennedy called on the Western Allies today to fulfill their responsibilities to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and build it into "a vigorous instrument of peace."

Speaking at the U.S. military base at nearby Hanau after reviewing 15,000 U.S. troops, the President took his theme from the presence of Canadian, West German and French troops in the honor guard welcoming him.

"It is not always easy in times of calm," he said, "to maintain the solidarity of an alliance. If all of us fulfill our responsibilities, we can make NATO not only a strong bulwark against attack but also a vigorous instrument of peace."

Kennedy noted that the alliance has survived 15 years and said it has a bright future if its members stand together. He called the record "almost unprecedented" in the history of alliances, which he said usually fall apart when dangers decline.

Kennedy, in the major address of his European tour later today, planned an even more pointed reply to De Gaulle's call for a Western Europe increasingly independent of the United States.

First State, Tipton B&L Will Merge

Members of the Tipton Building & Loan Association, Tipton, Mo., voted to merge with the First State Savings Association, Sedalia, and for the Sedalia institution to acquire its assets and continue the operation as a branch.

The action came at a special meeting Monday afternoon held at the offices of the Tipton Building & Loan. Eighty-four per cent of the eligible vote was cast and the vote was approximately six to one in favor of the merger.

Subject to approval by Gordon Church, Missouri state Savings and Loan supervisor, the transfer of assets will be made at the close of business on Friday, June 28th. The branch operation will be in charge of Mrs. Lillith Leonard, who has served the Tipton Building & Loan for the past several years.

Assets of the Tipton institution were in excess of $438,000 as of Dec. 31, 1962.

As members of the First State Savings Association, the present Tipton Building & Loan members will have their savings accounts insured for up to $10,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation after the merger. Account holders did not have this protection of accounts as members of the Tipton Building & Loan.

The Tipton Building & Loan Association has the following officers and members of the board of directors: John Ducher, president, Paul Gabert, vice president, J. B. Bond, E. J. Kempf, O. F. Kline and W. D. Fenton.

J. E. Mitchell, executive vice-president of First State Savings Association, issued the following statement, "The action of the members of the Tipton Building & Loan is an indication that there is a need for expansion of services offered by the savings and loan industry in our state. It is the intent of First State to provide expansion in this Central Missouri area through the promotion of thrift, and the attraction of savings accounts through insurance protection of such accounts. In addition we expect to make available for investment in home loans, through use of long term conventional as well as insured F.H.A. and G.I. loans. We accept and welcome the opportunity to serve the people of the Tipton community."

Man Assaulted In Sedalia Alley

Jackie Burlingame, 25, 615 East 26th, was treated at Bothwell Hospital at 10:45 p.m. Monday after having been hit in the head in the alley between Osage and Ohio behind the 100 block of West Main.

He was treated by Dr. A. R. Maddox and seven stitches were required to close a laceration in his head. Police said Burlingame was not able to identify his assailant.

Half-Million To Spruce Up For Visit

By J. A. DEAR
HANAU, Germany, June 25 — From its combat pocket the U.S. Army has dug out approximately $500,000 to spruce up Fliegerhorst Kaserne where President Kennedy reviewed 15,000 American troops.

About 200 of the 700 combat vehicles had been painted NATO green especially for his visit. When the President departs, NATO green will be obliterated by olive drab, the color preferred by a local commandant. But that's literally a mere drop from the big paint bucket. Thousands of gallons of paint have been poured over Fliegerhorst in recent weeks. The rule, say GIs, has been, "If it doesn't move paint it."

To make sure the President found the aspect of the Kaserne pleasing from his helicopter, huge areas were sprinkled with seed guaranteed to produce grass in less than 12 days. Where the fast growing stuff wouldn't take, artificial grass was put down.

An unsightly junkyard that couldn't be scrapped in time is concealed by camouflage nets.

About 10,000 tons of rock, and additional quantities of brick dust, fills potholes that dotted roads in the area only a few weeks ago.

The post gym is bedecked for this occasion with 350 parachutes.

Even the medical corps has worked overtime. Special psycho tests were used to comb the ranks of potential nuts who might upset the schedule in any way.

In all, more than 100 improvements were made for the big day. The precise cost of this face-lift is impossible to come by. The Army will only say that an estimate of $1 million is much too high. Besides, says the Army, some improvements had been scheduled.

Yvette-Mimeux Loses Libel Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The scantily clad girl in the camera magazine was identified as Yvette Mimeux.

Not so, said the blonde actress. It was someone else. Furthermore, she said, in a suit filed last November, the girl was "indecently exposed," and identifying her as Yvette Mimeux libeled Mimeux exactly $50,000 worth.

The court ruled against Mimeux Monday, agreeing with attorneys for Fawcett Publications and Photography Handbook that the actress waited too long to file suit. The magazine came out in July 1961 and a libel suit is supposed to be filed within a year of publication.

Long Opposes Federal Power Regulation

SIKESTON, Mo. (AP)—Opposition to proposed Federal Power Commission regulation of interstate movement of power handled by cooperatives was voiced today by Sen. Edward V. Long, D-Mo.

"I fail to see the need for regulation of cooperatives—which like yours are owned and operated by the members," Long said in a speech prepared for a meeting of the Scott-New Madrid-Mississippi Electric Cooperative.

"Nor do I see the need for you to be regulated in your rates and security issues. . . If your rates are set too high, you can vote to return the overage to yourselves—for you are not only the customers of your cooperative—you are its owners and managers as well. Such an increase of regulation—needless regulation—would certainly result in more red tape—more delay—more expense—to your cooperative."

Long said that ultimate decision in the matter may rest with Congress.

"If that happens," he said, "I think the cooperatives can be encouraged that their case will be heard in a friendly forum."

Each time he used a different address, it was reported.

Officers found Franck in possession of $94.49, mostly in small change.

Obtaining a search warrant, the officers then proceeded to the city parking lot at Third and Lamine, where Franck's auto, a 1955 Chevrolet, had been parked since about 6 a.m. Tuesday. Inside the officers found bags of money containing a total of $419.40.

Authorities are seeking two other subjects who had been with Franck on Monday night. Officers theorized the trio split the take from the Canteen Service burglary and that Franck possessed only his one-third share. Authorities said Franck was believed to have made a trip to Springfield during the night and returned here about 6 a.m.

The search of the car at Third and Lamine attracted a considerable crowd of onlookers.

According to Deputy Sheriff Buell from Green County, Franck had been arrested in connection with the burglary of a service station there in which $800 worth of cigarettes were taken. He escaped authorities there and had been sought since about a month ago.

Sheriff Emmett Fairfax said when the two Springfield officers returned from Jefferson City Tuesday afternoon that Franck would be turned over to them.

Prosecuting Attorney J. R. Fritz also expected to prepare a charge against Franck here for the role in the Canteen Service burglary.

Pettis County, however, will apparently have to wait its turn because of the Greene County fugitive warrant.

Recovered by authorities was $513.89 of the take from the Canteen Service.

Sheriff Emmett Fairfax said Tuesday afternoon that he had learned that the other two men sought in the burglary had been arrested by Springfield authorities.

They were identified as Ronald Dean Barker, 19, and Larry G. Crews, 20, both of Springfield.

Fairfax said Springfield authorities found the two with a large amount of change in a pillow case and a suitcase full of nickels.

The sheriff said he will go to Springfield Wednesday for the two who will be returned to Pettis County to face charges.

Officers here reported Barker and Crews had also been registered at the Royal Hotel using the names of Ronald and Larry Medley. The two had apparently registered at the hotel before in accompaniment with Francks.

Sedalian and Nieces Visit Randall Jessee in Denmark

On Friday, June 14, three Missourians, including a Sedalia woman, were luncheon guests of Randall S. Jessee, press attaché with the American Embassy in Copenhagen, Denmark.

The Missourians were Mrs. Irene D. Kuhlman, 121 South Osage, Sedalia; and her nieces, Misses Kathryn Anne Otto and Betty Jo Otto, both of Columbia. They visited Jessee while touring Europe, a trip which concluded June 22 when they returned home.

Jessee will be remembered by many in this area as director of special events for Kansas City Star stations WDAF and WDAF-TV from 1940 to 1959. Prior to that he was with KDRO here from 1939 to 1940 and in 1937 was with KWOS, Jefferson City. In 1962 he joined USIS and was assigned to Copenhagen, Denmark, as his first post. As press attaché he arranges press conferences, edits embassy publications and works closely with the ambassador on events related to diplomatic services. The USA 1 Dag, one of the four publications edited by Jessee in Danish, has 10,500 circulation. For two weeks, due to the absence of the regular officers, he will be acting public affairs officer and acting cultural affairs officer. He will be in Copenhagen for five years and then transferred to another post.

Just before the visit of the three Missourians named above, on Monday evening, June 10, Mr. and Mrs. Jessee held a reception in their home for Dean Earl English of the School of Journalism of the University of Missouri.

Dean English gave a lecture Wednesday evening at Aarhus University School of Journalism. Preceding the lecture, Berlingke Tidende, the largest newspaper in Denmark entertained Dean English with a luncheon which was attended by the Minister of Education of Denmark and 20 other invited guests including Mr. Jessee.

Thursday, June 13, Dean George Barrett, dean of journalism of Columbia University, New York, visited the Embassy and was welcomed by Jessee. Also Undersecretary of the Air Force Imrie was a recent visitor.

With Jessee in Denmark are his wife, Fern, and their 12-year-old daughter, Jana. Last winter his son, Randall, Jr., and his wife, Peggy, were in Copenhagen where Randall, Jr., attended the University of Copenhagen. They have since returned to Kansas City where he is currently attending the University of Kansas City.

Another son, Lance, just arrived in Copenhagen for a summer vacation from Kansas University. He will resume his studies there this fall. Last summer, the entire Jessee family and Miss Pat Postlethwaite, Kansas City, enjoyed a three-week camping trip, throughout Europe.

The three Missourians looking about Jessee's office at the embassy were both surprised and pleased to see reminders of home all about them on the walls. One, a framed letter from Roy A. Roberts, former president of the Kansas City Star, wishing Jessee well in his new post, and expressing appreciation of the Kansas City Star for the outstanding work done by Jessee while in Kansas City.

Also, a picture of Joyce Hall, president of Hallmark Cards, together with former President Eisenhower, at the re-dedication of the People to People Program. Another picture of Thomas Hart Benton and Mrs. Benton with Mr. and Mrs. Jessee. They were former neighbors in Kansas City. Also pictures of former President Truman were in evidence.

Jessee may work in Copenhagen, but Missouri memories are within his daily eye scope.

Also, the Missourians noted on another wall in the office a pick-up board with clippings from Danish newspapers taken all or in part from USA 1 Dag, which is edited by Jessee. He has received much recognition for his work in this publication.

On the lighter side of the life of the Jessee family in Denmark, they have a home on waterfrontage and a sail boat which they called "The Oak." Recently, they wanted to change the name to "Fern, the Second." For the re-naming, they decided a new christening would be in order, so they invited many friends and neighbors for the event. Among them was a young lady and her mother. The young lady was from the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner who was visiting Copenhagen.

These two visitors, feeling it would be a formal affair, since they knew beforehand champagne was to be used for the ritual, arrived in formal attire. They were quite surprised to see the others in extremely casual sport clothes. However, with Jessee as host, they were soon at ease. True, a few drops of champagne were bestowed upon the bow of "Fern, the Second" by "Fern, the First" (Mrs. Jessee) but the rest of the champagne was enjoyed by the guests attending the reception held immediately after the re-christening in honor of "Fern, the Second."

Unionizing Of Federal Workers In KC Starts

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A union plans to start organizing the 30,000 federal employees in Kansas City immediately, a spokesman said Monday.

John Griner, president of the American Federation of Government Employees AFL-CIO, said President Kennedy recently signed an executive order giving the union official recognition for the first time in its 30-year history.

"We already have 600 to 700 members here and we feel we can get many more," Griner said.

He said the union's constitution specifically prohibits its members from calling strikes against the government for any reason.

Bargaining rights could deal only with such things as grievances, vacation schedules, promotions and working conditions since pay scales and pension plans are set by Congress, Griner said. The union has headquarters in Washington to lobby for its members.

He said the union's membership has increased by 50,000 to a total of 125,000 since the President's recognition.

Pleasant Valley Tries to Annex Liberty Area

LIBERTY, Mo. (AP) — Liberty officials are frowning over an annexation election being held today in nearby Pleasant Valley.

The 1,100 residents of Pleasant Valley, mostly commuters, are voting on the question of annexing several hundred acres.

"They can't do that," William E. Turnage, Liberty city attorney declared Monday. "The land already has been annexed by Liberty. They are poaching."

He explained that Liberty voted to annex the land in 1952, but the effective date was put off until Jan. 1 because of such things as sewer problems.

Richard Morris, Pleasant Valley's new mayor, retorted:

"They can't tell us what we can or cannot do. Even if we voted to annex them (Liberty), that would be our business."

Liberty officials are seeking an injunction against any jurisdiction Pleasant Valley might claim over the area. They didn't try to stop the election, however.

"All we seek," Morris said, "is to feel out the voters. Let's find out what the voters want."

Clear Violation Of Monroe Doctrine, Say Republicans

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republicans submitted a House resolution Monday that called the presence of Soviet troops in Cuba a "clear violation of the Monroe Doctrine."

The resolution, which was approved by the House Republican Policy Committee, was drawn up by a GOP task force headed by Rep. James F. Battin of Montana. He said Congress should demand an end to Soviet intervention in Cuba, a termination of Communist sabotage, subversion and guerrilla warfare in the Western Hemisphere and the right of the Cuban people to determine their own destiny.

Ailing Cities Put on Spot

A fresh opportunity is at hand for state, county and local governments to show their stuff in competition with a federal authority against whose encroachments they complain.

Special Senate and House subcommittees on intergovernmental relations are beginning a long series of field inquiries into basic problems confronting the various levels of government in the nation's major metropolitan areas.

What the subcommittees want to hear is not Washington solutions but "grass roots" proposals for improving regional co-operation in solving such problems.

For example, if there is widespread opposition to plans for federal mass transit legislation, the probers will ask simply:

"How do you in your area propose to meet the crushing transportation needs of the present and future? Do you have the legal power and the organizational capacity to deal with these needs?"

Authorities and interested parties at the various levels below Washington will be on test. For many of these assert vigorously:

"Leave us alone. Leave these matters to us. We are better able than the federal government to solve our difficulties."

The answer to that, in the present circumstance, is that their case is unproven.

Many American communities are in deep trouble and show little sign of knowing how to extricate themselves. Slums grow faster than they can stamp them out. Automobile traffic strangles them. Air pollution comes near to smothering them on certain days. Financial burdens weigh them down.

Author Mitchell Gordon, in a new book called "Sick Cities," notes that one town equipped its postmen with gas masks because its air was unfit to breathe. It is a fact of life today, he adds, that every urban American who lives to be 60 can expect sometime to be victim of a crime ranging from theft to mayhem.

In less than two decades, says Gordon, nine out of 10 Americans will be living in urban metropolitan regions. Conditions then may well be utterly intolerable unless citizens and their communities act now to crack some of their most desperate problems.

Many of the "solutions" thus far tried, like widening streets and highways, only turn out to intensify the problems.

But in many ways—control of sprawl, of road patterns, of pollution, of recreational facilities—effective solutions are clearly barred by antiquated regional and local governing practices.

If these echelons of government have the capacity to clean away the deadwood of decades and grapple imaginatively with the huge dilemmas of city and town and county, the men of Congress now plunging into the field—coast to coast—will be only too happy to hear it.

Stopped Short In Civil Rights Program

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy stopped short — in his civil rights program — of asking Congress to give the attorney general all the authority some integrationist leaders want him to have.

But, if Congress granted all the President did ask, the attorney general would have far more muscle in civil rights cases.

Southern Democrats will fight this just as they will Kennedy's request for a law to make private business places stop discrimination against Negroes. Both are sore points.

It was in 1957 that Congress passed the first civil rights bill in this century after strenuous opposition by the South, particularly on this issue:

A provision in the bill that year to give the attorney general power to seek a court injunction against anyone depriving anyone of his civil rights in any field. That covered the whole show.

In the end the Southerners won and this provision was knocked out but they had to make a concession. The bill that passed Congress did strengthen the attorney general's hand in the voting field.

The 1957 law said he could seek injunctions when an individual was deprived of his voting rights.

Then in 1960 Congress passed a second civil rights bill. This added a bit to the attorney general's authority by giving him the right to demand voting records for 22 months back in federal elections.

And federal courts, in districts where the records were questioned, could compel voting officials to comply with the attorney general's demand.

All this could be considered progress but it was slow. And the results were not dazzling. Just last month Berl I. Bernhard, staff director of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, told Congress:

Since 1957 the attorney general's office had instituted 38 lawsuits in voting rights cases but a substantial number of Negroes were being denied the right to vote in about 100 counties in eight Southern states.

In his civil rights proposals last week Kennedy asked Congress to give the attorney general a much broader sphere of action by authorizing him to step in directly in two additional fields:

1. To seek a court injunction against a business place that discriminated against a Negro if the Negro couldn't afford the cost of a court suit or was afraid to start one.

2. To seek a court injunction against a segregated public school which refused to admit a Negro child if the parent couldn't afford a legal fight or was afraid to start it.

Even this wouldn't be as simple, direct or fast as it sounds in trying to get a business place to stop discriminating against Negroes.

Under Kennedy's plan there would be room for a lot of delay before the attorney general went to court to put an end to the discrimination. The court action would be the last resort.

First the effort would have to be made—through talk and attempted persuasion—to get the proprietor of a business place to stop discriminating. If that failed, the attorney general would go to court.

There is one way, however, in which the attorney general could skip the talk and go directly to court for an injunction: if he felt any effort to get voluntary compliance was useless.

All of this has been an explanation of Kennedy's proposal as he laid it before Congress. But what Congress does with it, in view of Southern opposition, is something else.

Body's Chemical Controls Keep Acidity in Balance

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M. D.

Q — I have a great deal of acid in my system. I have been told that the acid in tomatoes, peaches, and strawberries is injurious to me. What is your opinion?

A — There has always been a great deal of confusion about acidity. The gastric juice is normally strongly acid. In fact, when it is no longer acid you really have something to worry about.

When the normally acid stomach contents are regurgitated into the esophagus, you have heartburn and, if it gets all the way back to the mouth, you have water brash.

On the other hand, the acidity of the blood is kept amazingly constant by means of complicated chemical controls that rarely go out of balance.

An exception would be severe and uncontrolled diabetes, in which a true acidosis may occur.

Sour or tart foods such as those mentioned have an alkalinizing or acid-neutralizing effect on the blood because, when completely consumed, the ash is alkaline. The chief source of acid in the blood is the high protein component of the diet (meat, eggs, and cheese).

If the foods you mention are really upsetting you — and only your doctor can determine that — it would be because you have an allergy to them.

Q — Eight years ago I had an eye infection called "uveitis," and lost the sight of my left eye. What could have caused it?

A — The uvea is the layer of blood vessels that lies just under the white of the eye. Its visible portion is the iris, the colored membrane that determines your eye color and how much light enters the eye.

An acute inflammation of the uvea is always serious, as it usually results in some loss of vision. The cause is usually either an acute injury to the eye or an infection.

Chronic uveitis may be caused by tuberculosis, venereal disease, rheumatic fever, gout, or diabetes. The treatment would depend on the cause.

Q — I read recently about a medicine for metabolic obesity. It is called tri-iodothyronine. Is it on the market yet? What are its side effects?

A — This drug is available only on a doctor's prescription. The trade name is Cytomel. It is used primarily for persons whose thyroid does not put out enough secretion (persons with hypothyroidism), or who have simple goiter. It is also used to treat metabolic insufficiency which is characterized by easy fatigability, dryness of the hair and skin, obesity, irritability, emotional instability, intolerance of cold, vague aches and pains, and facial puffiness.

The drug should not be used to relieve these symptoms unless it can be shown that they are associated with a low basal metabolic rate.

The side effects, which are especially severe in persons with a normal metabolic rate, include rapid-pounding heart action, profuse sweating, headache, and nervous excitement. These side effects disappear promptly when the drug is stopped.

Dialogue from Washington

By VERA CLAY

The British contingent in our capital is walking around gingerly in its best Establishment manner, trying gamely to keep a stiff upper lip while wave after wave of sea-lal hits our shores.

Prime Minister Macmillan did win a vote of confidence in the House of Commons; but this kind of victory is hollow at best.

Insiders know that the poor chappy, Macmillan, who is truly a gentleman of the old school, is the goat for the high living shenanigans of his own set. To kiss and tell is poor taste in anybody's language; to kiss and tell and lie publicly at the same time is death . . . particularly when it involved the government of a whole nation. Profumo should have known better.

The biggest problem now is to scotch the rumors which are flying fast and furiously on both sides of the Atlantic, implicating names even higher up in the British hierarchy.

Even for the sake of politics, it is not likely that either the Conservative or Labor Party wants to get into this much of an imbroglio. La Dolce Vita may be fine for the Italian cinemas but not for the old school tie. It could rock the very foundations of the British Establishment which is badly enough shaken at the present moment. The British diplomats in Washington are to be admired for the restraint and good taste they are exhibiting under the most trying circumstances.

Also, the British would like to get its dirty linen off the international line before President Kennedy pays his visit to the country. Our own homebred Establishment—the White House clan—have been completely silent about the gossip lest they get implicated for talking out of turn. The White House assiduously has paid attention to the Labor leader, Harold Wilson, lest the British government do a somersault prior to Kennedy's arrival.

rival. Besides, we have to do business with whatever government wins. He can do no more about the British government than they can about us when we are raising political dust. Kennedy's best course is silence.

It would be improper and highly out of order for us to sit in moral judgment on the love life of British officials. Who knows what lurks underneath our own Capitol dome and who wants to find out. Better that we let sleeping dogs lie than try to match scandal for scandal with our British cousins. It is too bad, however, that the lovely Queen Elizabeth, who is such a dedicated public servant, has to be subjected to the vulgarity of the whole sordid mess.

What They Say In Letters to Editor

CHARLES B. WALLACE (Major, U. S. A. F., 1909 Fairview Court) — The action of the City Council in rejecting the Zoning and Planning Commission's decision on rezoning part of Fairview Addition is most disheartening. I own the property at 1909 Fairview Court, which is within 185 feet of the property in question and will be directly affected if the council carries through with the proposed ordinance. The arbitrary manner of the Council in drafting the ordinance should frighten every property owner in Sedalia.

The Zoning and Planning Commission responded to the wishes of the people and rejected this application twice. The public need for a shopping center, in addition to those facilities available and those that have been planned and approved, is not great enough for the council to override the Zoning Commission's decision.

We the Women

Make Room for the Men

By RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Memo to Women: You may not know this, but our beauty salons—long strictly feminine establishments so far as customers are concerned—are being invaded by men.

Some cities such as New York and Hollywood, have strictly male beauty salons where a man can go for a permanent wave, a hair-dye job, a manicure and pedicure, or a facial.

But in cities where there are as yet no temples of beauty devoted exclusively to the male sex, the men are sneaking into the women's shops early in the morning and late at night, to make use of many of the aids to youth and good looks that women have learned to depend upon.

In Memphis, Tenn., for instance, beauty shop owners estimate that male customers now make up anywhere from 20 to 30 per cent of their business. And most of these men have started patronizing beauty salons within the last five years.

For Low-Fat Dieters

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
DEAR POLLY — I love your column. To me, it is the bright spot in the paper. Thought you might like a little hint of mine. I have a small loaf pan that I use only for meat loaf. My husband and I are trying to eliminate as much fat from our diet as possible, so I punched holes in the bottom of this pan and placed it in the oven on top of two or three soft drink bottle caps or a cookie sheet. My meat loaf is perfect, uniformly shaped and the fat drains off into the lower pan. Be sure to add water to the bottom of the cookie sheet to prevent the drippings from burning and sticking to it.—JUDY

DEAR POLLY — I have a hint for flower lovers. Spray any cut flowers with hair spray to make them last longer without shedding. Simply spray the same as for a hairdo. You will be surprised with the results. But be sure not to use spray around a lighted stove or cigarette. Most hair sprays are inflammable.

GIRLS — If you try this do it out-of-doors, so the spray does not fall on your furniture. I held the spray can about a foot away from the bouquet. When I sprayed a second bouquet, I felt the results were even better, as I sprayed upward on the flowers rather than down from the top so the weight of the spray would not cause the flowers to droop.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — When I remove the hooks in order to wash or dry clean drapes made with pleated tape, I make sure that the hooks will be replaced in the same slots by marking the slots with

What's behind this sudden desire of men to look their best that is overcoming their timidity about entering beauty salons as customers?

My guess is, with women spending as much as they do on beauty aids and openly changing their hair color to match their moods and fascinate their husbands with a completely new look, the men are beginning to feel drab and old in comparison.

No woman today has gray hair, except by choice. And when a husband sees how much younger his wife looks without any silver threads among the gold or brown, he may start wondering if he wouldn't look 10 years younger himself if he went in for a dye job.

Besides, we live in an age when looking as young as possible is all-important. Men feel this almost as much as women do.

So if men are sneaking into our beauty salons in ever-increasing numbers, perhaps we women ought to let them know that they don't have to sneak.

indelible pencil. My drapes are returned to the windows exactly as before the cleaning. A stitch or two with colored thread also would serve the purpose.

Anyone with shutter doors or shutters at the windows knows how hard it is to dust or clean each shutter slot. I employ the aid of an old soft toothbrush which gets into the corners very easily.—MRS. H. J. M.

DEAR POLLY — Sew plaids or tweeds with TWO of the predominating colors in the fabric — one color thread in the sewing machine bobbin and the other for the top thread. Together they will blend into the fabric better than one color.—MRS. K. R. D.

DEAR POLLY — When my parents celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, daughters-in-law and granddaughters wore yellow dresses. The sons, sons-in-law and grandsons wore yellow ties and boutonnieres and white shirts. We girls had yellow corsages. Our family could be easily distinguished from the other guests, eliminating a lot of "Now, just who is that?" It also made us appear as "wedding party" attendants to our beloved PARENTS.—MRS. J. R. ## Into the Vacuum

Nobody is getting noticeably excited by all the talk in Washington about a tax cut. There are a number of reasons for this, not the least of which are the indications that the states will move in on the taxpayer if the federal government moves out.

Tax Foundation, Inc., a private research group, reports that about 30 states are considering tax increases that would add $1.5 billion nation-wide to total taxes. Many of these increases are keyed to reductions in the federal bite.

Commerce Clearing House, another private group, reports the same picture, which varies from Maine's proposed sales tax increase to 4 per cent to West Virginia's extension of its horse race tax.

We seem to have reached a plateau in taxes. There is a certain percentage of the national wealth that has to be extracted and disbursed by government because certain things have to be done and only government — national or local — can do them.

The percentage may be a trifle on the high side today, but any net reduction is likely to be slight after local tax hikes are balanced against federal tax cuts.

That's why Joe Citizen is not excited about a tax cut. He sees little difference in whether the money is taken from his right hand or his left hand.

of cost and rising enrollment, Chicago in the last decade recorded 232 new and enlarged schools built or occupied. Most of the effort was financed by $200 million in bonds approved by voters.

Chicago Points Way

In Los Angeles, San Francisco, New York, Philadelphia and many another sizable city, "double shifts" for elementary school children are still a commonplace. They are the symptom of classroom shortages chronic in numerous areas.

Education officials across the country often point to such conditions as one conclusive proof of the need for greater physical plant for the nation's schools.

A real milestone, therefore, is the recent announcement in Chicago that that city's nearly 400,000 grade school pupils attended the past second semester without double shifts and all students attended full time.

It is the first time since the Civil War Chicago has been able to manage this. And it has brought it off despite an 11-year increase in school enrollment of 172,000 pupils. Last year the rolls were swollen by more than 25,000 additional.

Somehow or other, despite all the burdens

Washington Merry-Go-Round

JFK Treads on Eggs to Visit Erhard

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy skirts gingerly around a delicate personal cleavage when he confers with Vice Chancellor Ludwig Erhard. He will skirt around an even more delicate political cleavage in Berlin.

It's significant that he has to go to a different city, Frankfurt, to confer with the man who soon will take over the government of West Germany. They will not confer in Bonn, capital of Germany.

This adroit shift of scene was arranged because the Grand Old Man of Germany, now 87 years old and about to bow out of public office, is more sensitive than a retiring Metropolitan opera star about taking the final bows without being nudged by an understudy. Adenauer has castigated Erhard publicly as a weakling, at first refused to get out at all, finally had to be served an ultimatum that he must step down as Chancellor.

This should not reflect on Adenauer's great job in picking up the shattered German republic. But the fact that President Kennedy had to make a special trip to Frankfurt to see the next Chancellor of Germany highlights a difference more important than merely a clash of personalities. It also highlights growing differences between the old and the new in regard to the No. 1 political problem which concerns the United States, Russia, and most of Europe — unification of Germany.

Two Separate Germanys
Chancellor Adenauer viewed two separate Germanys the way George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, views the Taft-Hartley Act. Meany knows the Taft-Hartley Act is not going to be repealed, but he isn't going to shout about it at labor meetings. Likewise, German political leaders know the two Germanys are not going to be united for a long time to come — if ever — but they are not going to shout about it in campaign speeches.

They have come to live with the two Germanys, just as George Meany has come to live with the Taft-Hartley Act; and a lot of them privately like the idea of continuing to live that way, just as a lot of labor leaders privately like living with the Taft-Hartley Act.

And since the symbol of unification was Berlin and the reason Berlin has been kept alive as a red hot issue has been the idea that someday it would be restored as the capital of a united Germany, this new thinking should make it easier to find a solution for the Berlin problem.

The exit of Konrad Adenauer should also make it easier. Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin is not nearly as rabid on the question of Berlin as the old Chancellor. Brandt last summer gave me the same solution for Berlin suggested by Khrushchev — namely an independent city protected by UN troops and serving as the capital for part of the UN.

So the shifting of President Kennedy's talks from Adenauer in Bonn to Ludwig Erhard in Frankfurt may be symbolic of subsequent important political changes. This, however, will depend in part on what the President does in Berlin.

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: A few years ago the people next door bought a little kitten for their daughter. The child was tenderhearted and loved animals. She started a home for stray cats — feeding and sheltering them from the elements, bless her heart.

Today the girl is nine years old, and apparently the cats have spread the word around town. At the last count there were 38 cats in the basement.

It's admirable that the child is such a little humanitarian but do you know what 38 cats sound like? Our house is very close to theirs and I haven't had a good night's sleep in weeks. Every morning I drag myself to work exhausted.

Is there a logical solution which has escaped me because I'm so tired? I don't want to be an old meanie but I can't go on this way. —D. E. E.

Dear D. E. E.: Thirty-eight cats is a lot of felines under one roof. There are ordinances in most jurisdictions pertaining to animals and I suggest you learn what they are by contacting your local humane society. Then you can speak with some authority to your neighbors.

Dear Ann Landers: I would like to comment on the letter from the woman who was annoyed with her psychiatrist because he munched apples during her sessions and seemed totally disinterested. I had a similar experience, and for $25 an hour, too.

At first I was furious but I kept my anger bottled up. Then one day I exploded and tore right into him. It was the worst tongue-lashing I had ever given any one. My doctor let me rant and rave for 10 minutes then he quietly said, "Good. Now we will get someplace."

My progress since that day has been amazing. People who seek professional help help themselves if they talk only about what is polite and pleasant. You were wise to advise the patient to let the doctor have it. If she takes your advice she'll find, as I did, that there is real value in being honest about one's feelings.—UN-CHAINED

Dear Unchained: Psychiatrists and analysts must be catching it from patients left and right. Many readers wrote along these same lines. Hooray for all of you!

Dear Ann Landers: About that old duffer who dashes for the picture window when the light next door goes on:

His wife probably resembles mine — a perfect 39-39-39 with a voice like a ton of gravel going down a coal chute. The old girl has let herself go till she looks like a mountain of lard. I have pleaded with her to do a little walking and bending, to cut down on the starches and get herself looking like a human being again—but it's a hopeless cause.

So when I want to see a beautiful female figure, what do I do? I go to my kitchen window at about 10:30 p. m. and there she is — a model in her early 30's who lives across the court. She wanders around in her scanties. Sometimes she does exercises, or irons a little, or sews or reads.

I've checked with other old duffers in this building and they enjoy the view, too. Of course, the woman is despised by every hog-fat, double-chinned wife in the building. They keep hoping she'll move. We hope she stays here forever. —NOT DEAD YET

Dear Yet: If this is proof that you are "not dead" I have news—you're not exactly living either. I've said it before and I'll say it again. Those who get their kicks viewing are sick, sick, sick.

Confidential to TWO BIT PHIL-OSOPHER: I'm one myself and I disagree wholeheartedly with your notions. There can be no good or evil if there is not the freedom to choose. (Try this one out on your saxophone, Buddy.)

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Kicks Cobb Habit

Ward Has Good Grip On Things

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Chicago White Sox hit the bullseye when they pulled off a multiple-player swap that included Pete Ward, a young third baseman who has been right on target since he kicked the Ty Cobb habit.

Hamilton And Myers To Team Up

Sonny Myers and Larry Hamilton, at one time bitter ring rivals, have patched up their differences and now are ready to discover what a co-operative effort will do against two of the game's rowdiest pros.

Rock Hunter

show of the season at the air-conditioned Agriculture Building. Starting time is 8:15.

Myers and Hamilton are opposites in virtually every phase of the action, but both have speed, strength and skill. Where Myers nuch prefers to outwit his opponent, Hamilton likes nothing better than to bang his foe around the ring, using whatever power tactics that fit the situation.

Against Hunter and Geigel, they'll need their roughest antics. Both heavyweights are vicious and unyielding. Geigel, especially, is a free-swinging battler who's just as apt to bang his opponent over the head with a ring-side chair as he is to try for a body slam. Hunter is of the roughing school and makes no bones about it. He has learned to take the initiative and hang on to it.

Three other matches are scheduled. Classy Steve Bolas, a talented young Canadian who has beaten many of the veterans at their own roughing tactics, will try his hand against Roy Collins, the Georgia strong boy who is tough and able.

Hamilton draws Hunters and Myers goes against Geigel in other single events.

Giants Take 4-3 Victory Over Cards

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Two St. Louis errors and a hit batsman led to four San Francisco runs in the opening frame and the Giants made them stick for a 4-3 victory that jumped them over the Cardinals into first place in the National League Monday night.

St. Louis is one-half game back and Los Angeles is another half length behind.

Lew Burdette contributed to his own downfall as he threw away one ball for one run and hit a batter to force in another run.

Burdette left for a pinch-hitter in the seventh. He gave up five hits. The Cardinals, meanwhile, got two runs in the fifth on singles by Tim McCarver and Duke Carmel and a hit by Bill White that drove them both home. Julian Javier accounted for the final tally with a homer off Giant starter Juan Marichal in the seventh.

However, after Dick Groat doubled in the same frame, Billy Pierce came on to blank the Cardinals over the last 2 1-3 innings.

Kansas City used some long-ball hitting to score a 6-3 victory over Detroit in Kansas City.

Bob Del Greco homered with a man on in the third inning and Jerry Lumpe hit a two-run triple in the fourth that brought the A's back from a 3-0 deficit. Ken Harrelson, rookie first baseman supplied the final two markers with a two-run blast in the eighth.

Ed Rakow received credit for the victory but needed help from John Wyatt in the ninth.

St. Louis and the Giants meet again tonight. Ray Sadecki will aim for his fifth straight victory for the Cardinals against four losses. Jack Fisher (3-7) probably will pitch for the Giants.

Washington comes to Kansas City tonight and will send Dave Stenhouse (3-7) against Diego Segui (2-2) of the A's.

State Men's Golf Tourney Opens Today

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—About 180 golfers teed off today in opening the Missouri men's amateur tournament at the Hickory Hills course.

Eighteen holes today will cut the field to 100, and another 18 holes of qualifying Wednesday will leave 64 for match play starting Thursday.

Bob Cochran of Kansas City, the 1962 champion, doesn't have to qualify.

Former champions entered include John Inman of Joplin, the 1961 title; Jack House of Kansas City, 1960 champion, and Bill Stewart of Springfield, who won the title in 1953 and 1957 when the tourney was played at Hickory Hills, his home course.

Stewart shot a 2-under-par 70 in practice Monday and is rated the favorite.

Par is 36-36-72 on the 6,423-yard course. The fairways have been covered with Bermuda grass since the 1957 tourney, and the Hickory Hills pro, Sam Reynolds, said the course will play longer because there won't be much roll on the drives.

The fairways also have been narrowed to 45 or 50 yards, and the rough is about five inches tall. Also, the golfers have found the small greens firm and unlikely to hold anything but an exact approach shot.

There will be 18 holes of match play Thursday, with double rounds Friday and Saturday, and the 36-hole finals Sunday.

Giants, Dodgers Hopping Ahead

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Getting a quick jump, the San Francisco Giants and Los Angeles Dodgers have hopped ahead in that game of leap frog they're playing in the National League.

The Giants scrambled for all their runs in the first inning Monday night and bounced into the lead over St. Louis, shading the

Australian Long Way From Title

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Australia's Roy Emerson, the world's top-ranked amateur tennis player, has two legs on tennis' Grand Slam but he's a long way from a shoo-in for the Wimbledon title.

"He's a good player and he has as good a chance as anybody of winning," said Bill Lenoir of Tucson, Ariz., after falling before the Australian in Wimbledon's opening round Monday.

"But he's no cinch for the title," Lenoir said. "I have the feeling he could have a bad day which would put him out."

The sentiment was echoed by former Wimbledon champion Jaroslav Drobny, now a London newspaper columnist and one of the world's leading authorities on the game.

"I take unseated Rafael Osuna of Mexico to claim Rod Laver's vacated crown and become the new Wimbledon champion," Drobny wrote.

Osuna, a Mexican Davis Cupper who is a student at Southern California, grinned when he saw the article and said:

"I hope I can live up to his opinion."

Asked if he thought he could beat Emerson, Osuna replied: "Let's put it this way. If I get past Santana, I'll win the tournament."

Osuna referred to second-seeded Manuel Santana of Spain, who he probably will meet in the third round. Santana did not play in the rain-shortened Monday program.

Osuna had some trouble eliminating Mikhail Mozer of Russia 6-4, 9-7, 6-3. Emerson, who already has nailed down the French and Australian titles, whipped past Lenoir 6-0, 6-4, 6-3.

Rain cut Monday's program about in half and eight American entries, including Chuck McKinley, didn't get on the courts. Cliff Buchholz of St. Louis, had a 2-1 lead over Italian Davis Cup star Nicola Pietrangeli before the match was postponed. They are scheduled to finish today.

McKinley, the United States' top-ranked player, goes against Cliff Drysdale of South Africa today.

Other pairings have Gene Scott, New York, playing Owen Davidson, Australia; Arthur Ashe, Richmond, Va., vs. Carlos Fernandez, Brazil; and Frank Froehling, Coral Gables, Fla., playing Donald Dell, Bethesda, Md.

The principal part of today's program was first-round activity for women, with Australia's Margaret Smith favored.

Five American men, including Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., survived first round play. Ralston, who won the NCAA title last week but is unseeded at Wimbledon, beat Laci Legenstein of Austria 6-4, 6-4, 6-3.

Other American winners: Herbie Flam, Palm Springs, Calif., defeated Geoff Knox, Australia, 7-5, 4-6, 6-2, 4-6, 6-3; Jack Frost, Monterey, Calif., defeated Thomas Koch, Brazil, 3-6, 7-5, 9-7, 13-11; Ed Robinoff, Miami Beach, Fla., defeated Daniel Costet, France, 8-6, 6-1, 6-3; William Hoogs, Berkeley, Calif., defeated Jose Arilla, Spain, 8-10, 12-10, 6-2.

The big upset was the defeat of Allen Fox of Los Angeles by Rhodesia's Adrian Bey 6-4, 12-10, 6-2.

Other American first round losers included Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif., Gardner Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., Ronnie Fisher of Houston and Bill Bond of La Jolla, Calif.

Trautman Is Dead Of Cancer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—George M. Trautman, who never made it as a professional player but went on to become one of baseball's top administrators is dead of cancer.

Trautman, 73, who had headed the minor leagues since 1947, had suffered for some time with a heart condition but doctors said cancer was the cause of his death at his home here Monday.

He began his administrative career in baseball in 1933 when he became president of the Columbus (Ohio) Redbirds of the American Association.

Later, he became president of the American Association and for six years was vice president of the Minor League Association and chairman of its executive committee.

In 1946, he became vice president and general manager of the Detroit Baseball Club, but was re-

Elks and Ice Are Victors Monday Nite

Elks and Sedalia Ice were the victors in Monday night's action in the Little League majors at Liberty Park.

In the first game, National League leading Ice mauled last place Adco 19-1. The winning pitcher for Ice was Peter Green, with Guy Scalzo chalking up the loss on the mound. David Bass slammed a home run in the second.

A second place tie in standings was broken in the second game of the majors as Elks beat Rotary 6-3. Don Crank was the winning hurler for Elks, with Mark Wanserski taking the loss.

At Centennial Park, the Mutt and Jeff team of Terry Sinn on the mound and Randy Turley catching proved the winning combination for Rotary A's as they whipped Elks 16-2. Sinn was the winning pitcher, with Maurice Boggess taking the loss.

The second game saw fourth place Adco whip first place Sedalia Ice 13-11. Tommy Brown was the winner on the mound, with Charles Williams taking the pitching loss.

In the "C" league, Optimist more than doubled Jaycees' score with a 17-8 victory. Kim Anderson was the winner for Optimist, with Bradley Thomas taking the loss for Jaycees.

In a good, tight game, Jaycees topped Optimist 3-1 in the "B" game at Housel Park. The winning pitcher for Jaycees was Tommy Ross, with Rodney Wallace taking the mound loss.

His evaluation: A product of the untalented, sold by the unprincipled to the utterly bewildered.

The creator of "Lil Abner" gave his view while being interviewed by teenagers on a program called "Youth Wants to Know."

BOYS CLUB NOTES

First round results in the Intermediate Tennis Tournament for Boys Club members found Bob Herring winning over Rickie Esser 7-5, 6-1. Entries in the doubles are Tom Morris and Doug Dickman, Bill Solon and Jim Downs.

Instruction for Junior Tennis aspirants will get under way Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the Liberty Park Tennis Courts under the direction of Bob Moore former City Tennis Champion and Boys Club instructor. This is for youngsters with little experience. The instructions will continue each Wednesday morning and all members interested in learning to play are requested to report. The following boys have signed up for this event: David Dennis, Mark White, Steve Gallagher, Frederick Miesner, Maurice Pitts, Jack Arnold, Eddie Lyles and Paul Klover, Jr.

For a July activity starting Thursday July 4th, all Boys Club members will be entitled to one hour instruction on the trampoline between the hours of 9 and 12 noon or half hour on trampoline each Thursday until 6 o'clock. Space ball can also be played. It will be necessary for each Boys Club member present his membership card at the trampoline center to enjoy this sport.

Several members of Boys Clubs from other states have been visitors at the club and seeing the local club in action.

Patriotism is presently experiencing a wonderful rebirth and popularity throughout the nation. No longer is it considered "corny" or square or "old hat" to display the flag, boost our country and take pride in who and what we are. This year attention is focused on the tremendous job Boys Clubs do in teaching patriotism and the rules of good citizenship. July 4 is the day to "Make Freedom Really Ring."

Anyone having extra tennis racquets which are not in use can donate them to the Boys Club for use by members who are learning to play.

The eleventh annual administrative Conference will be held at Purdue University, Lafayette Indiana on September 13 and 14. The conference is designed for

Bette Davis, Paul Henreid Together

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A fine old partnership is being renewed in a new guise — Bette Davis and Paul Henreid.

You remember the two cigarettes. Of course you do. How Paul sentimentally lighted two of them and handed Bette one in the unabashedly sentimental "Now Voyager" (1942). It was the greatest thing that happened to smoking until the filter tip.

They're back together again, though smoking independently these days. They returned to their old acting grounds, Warner Brothers, to make "Dead Ringer." This time Henreid is directing Bette, who is playing two of the starring roles. Karl Malden is her leading man.

"It's really marvelous to be working with Bette again and to have Jack Warner put his arms around me and say, 'Paul, it's great to have you back,'" said Henreid. "Simply marvelous."

He indeed seems to be a happy man as he embarks on the complicated film, which will require split-screens and other tricky administrative personnel, Executive Directors, Assistant and Associate Executive Directors, Unit Directors and Directors of Associate Boys Club.

for Bette's dual role. He is no tyro at directing, having done a few modest films and 100 television shows.

How did he develop that phase of his career?

"That was really what interested me most when I studied at the academy in Vienna," said Trieste-born Henreid. "But I neglected my desire to direct because of the gratification of the success I enjoyed as an actor first in Vienna, then in London and New York and finally, here."

The big change in his career came after he had acted in a bomb called "10,000 Bedrooms." After he saw the preview he told his wife: "If that is what is ahead for me as an actor, I would rather be running a gas station."

Provisionally, Alfred Hitchcock called him shortly afterward. He was undergoing an operation. Could Paul direct a television show he was supposed to do?

Paul did. He has since directed 40 Hitcocks, plus a score of other filmed television shows.

Preliminary Hearing Set For Claude Landon

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — A preliminary hearing will be held July 3 for Claude Landon, 49, of Lawrence. He is charged with murder in connection with the rifle slaying of Robert Chester Ball, 43.

Ball was killed by a bullet through the head Saturday while driving along a residential street with Landon's estranged wife, Virginia, 41.

When Ball slumped over, dead, the car jumped the curb and smashed into a porch. Mrs. Landon was injured and was taken to a hospital.

County Atty. Ralph M. King said Landon had followed Ball's car several blocks. Witnesses said Landon stopped his car and started shooting.

One of the bullets struck a third car, wounding a passenger in a foot.

Landon drove to the courthouse and surrendered to Sheriff Fred Broeker. A high-powered rifle was in his car.

Right Kind of Roof

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The right kind of roof can help you beat the summer heat, says Dr. L. W. Newbauer of the University of California.

A flat, black roof is murder, he told the American Society of Agricultural Engineers Monday.

"A white roof is 55 degrees cooler," he said. "Roofs with steep slopes are the coolest, flat roofs are the hottest; roofs that slope to the north are the coolest, south next, and east and west the hottest."

TOTAL PERFORMANCE:

FORD GALAXIE 500XL SPORTS HARDTOP

IF YOU KNEW WHAT

THIS "CAR KILLER" KNOWS...YOU'D BE DRIVING A SOLID, SILENT SUPER TORQUE FORD

This steel-edged pothole is probably the world's toughest test of a car's suspension. We drive into this car killer at 30 mph, locking our brakes as we go so the wheels can't roll through the hole as they normally would. The car slams against the far edge of the hole with such impact that it literally bounds out.

If you added up the cumulative effect of all the jars and jolts your car's suspension system experiences in years of normal driving, it wouldn't match the impact of one trip through the hole. Yet—a Ford must run this test three times to prove its strength.

How can a Ford take it? Because Ford's front suspension has extra beef in spindles, springs, suspension arms—in fact, it's about 20 pounds heavier than the front suspension of our principal competitor's car.

We don't expect you to abuse your car the way we do our test cars. But, however you drive, you'll welcome the extra strength of a total performance Ford. Ford strength is tested in a thousand ways in Ford's laboratories and proving grounds—and in open competition in the world's toughest rallies and stock car events.

Look at Ford's astounding record in open competition this year in the grueling Daytona, Riverside, and Atlanta 500's, the World 600 at Charlotte, N.C., and in the demanding Pure Oil Performance Trials. Only a car with total performance—the best combination of strength, balance, precision control and road-clinging suspension—could roll up so many wins.

Before you buy any new car, test-drive the solid, silent Super Torque Ford. If you haven't driven one lately, you can't really know what a new Ford is like. Make this important discovery: if it's built by Ford, it's built for performance...total performance.
